GRAPHIC AND OTHER MATTER. RECEPTIONS.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO ANNOUNCE that the Ladies of the Executive Mansion, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Stover, will be at home on Monday evenings, after seven o'clock. The evening has been fixed upon for the drawing-room receptions of the ladies in lieu of the afternoon as during last season, and they will receive e very Monday evening until further notice. MRS. POSTMASTER GENERAL RANDALL WILL hold receptions on Wednesday afternoons of each week. THE LADIES OF SECRETARY BROWNING'S FAMILY will receive their friends, as usual, on Wednesday's, from 12 to 4 o'clock, p. m. Residence on Montgomery street, Georgetown Heights. SPEAKER COLPAX'S RECEPTIONS are to be every Friday evening, from 8% to 11 p. m. The receptions of the Speaker's mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Matthews, for ladies, and gentlemen accompanying them, will be every Wednesday afternoon, from 1 to 4 p. m. The Speaker's weekly receptions will close on the last Friday of March.

FINANCIAL EFFECT OF IMPEACH-

Although the events occurring in this city are telegraphed throughout the country, and read with universal interest, and by some with deep and painful anxiety, yet the financial disturbances which were expected to result from the attitude of the President, and the action of Congress looking toward his impeachment, have not occurred. Gold has been much less excited than was anticipated, and quotations in New York yesterday ranged from 144 to 142%, closing at the lowest figure, notwithstanding the circulation of sensation rumors on Wall street of riots in this city and the proclamation of martial law, which stories failed to effect the market in the slightest degree. It seems to be understood that the questions at issue are in the course of settlement before the indicial tribunals of the country, in accordance with existing laws, and that any resort to force is unnecessary, and would be condemned by moderate men of all parties, who, fortunately for the country, are largely in the majority As some of our dealers in dry goods and other articles had marked up their stock in anticipation of a sudden and material advance in gold, we trust they will promptly reconsider their action, and restore the old prices. They should not add to the prevailing distress by an increase of prices which is uncalled for and unnecessary. If our citizens will only keep cool, and endeavor by all possible means to allay excitement instead of increasing it, it will be better for all concerned. There is no question at issue which may not be settled legally and quietly, and all heated discussions, but more particularly all panicky meddling with the laws of trade, are to be deprecated, as they do no good, but are powerful for evil.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION .- The reception at the Executive Mansion last evening was attended by as large and fashionable assemblage as any of the preceding ones, although the weather was very inclement. From eight until eleven o'clock a constant stream of visitors passed through the Executive Mansior. Many of the visitors stopped for a moment as they were introduced to the President to express their approval of his course during the last few days, some adding a word as to their willingness to stand by him. The President, with Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Stover, received in the blue parlor, General Michler presenting to the ladies and Marshal Gooding to the President. Messrs. C. H. Van Wyck and Lewis Selye, of New York, two members of Congress, who, yesterday, gave their votes in favor of impeachment, were among the visitors, and remaided at the White House until a late hour. The Marine Band, under Prof. Scala, performed many choice pieces of music during the evening, while the guests promenaded in the halls and east room. The toilettes of many of the ladies present were very rich and elegant, making the reception a most brilliani affair.

Among the distinguished persons present were Secretary Seward. Secretary McCulioch and lady, Secretary Welles and lady, Postmaster General Randall and lady, Attorney General Stanbery and lady, F. W. Seward, Assistant Secretary of State; Sir Edward Thornton, the English Minister; Mr. Edward Stoeckl, the Russian Minister; M. J. Bertheny, the French Minister; the Chevalier Cerruti, Italian Minister. Senor Goni, the Spanish Minister; Mr. F. E. Bille, Charge de Affairs Denmark; Mr. Ford and Mr. Fane, of the English Legation; Mr. Cantagalli, of the Italian Legation: Senor Medina, of the Peruvian Legation; Mr. Howard, of the English Legation, and lady: Don Manuel Azcarraga, of the Spanish Legation; M. F. Baredetti, of the French Legation; Don Mitre G. Media, of the Argentine Legation; Senator Doolittle and lady, Senator Davis, of Ky .: Patterson, of Tenn.: Representative Adams, of Ky., Barnes, Boyer, Wood, Brooks. Niblach, Pruyn, Carey, Randall, Morgav, Marshall, Eldridge, Gen. Miller, Gen. Vincent. Gen. Dyer, Admiral Lee and lady. Mayor Wallach and lady, Gen. Frank Blair, Hon. N. L. Jeffries, Edgar T. Welles, Esq., Mrs. Judge Swayne, Mrs. General Ricketts, Mrs. General Greene, and many others.

" A WAY OUT."-Under the above head the New York Post of yesterday suggests that "the Senate could easily settle the trouble at Washington by regarding the nomination of Mr. Thomas Ewing by the President as an olive branch, and confirming him as Secretary of War.

In the present temper of Congress, as indicated by yesterday's proceedings, it is not at all likely to seek that "way out."

A HINT -One of the street railroad companies of Philadelphia has, we observe, divided the benches of its cars into single seats, separated by arms. Nowhere is this improvement more needed than in this city, and particularly on the Avenue line, and we hope to see it adopted here at once. In this way only, can the unpleasant crowding on the one hand, and the equally unpleasant occupation of two seats by one person on the other, be prevented.

As THE FABLED SONG of the swan grows s weeter as death approaches, so the gay season seems to grow gayer the nearer its close. This was aptly illustrated by the hop given at Willard's last evening. It was largely attended by the guests of the house and a pleasant sprinkling of the fashionable and intellectual world outside, and all agreed in the verdict that it was good to be there. In the English House of Lords last night the bill suspending the habeas corpus act in Ireland was advanced to the second reading. Farl Russell spoke at length, advocating reform in Ireland in both Church and State. Speeches in reply were made by Earl Hardwick and others. THE VOTE ON IMPEACHMENT .- In our third edition last evening we gave the vote of the Impeachment resolution in detail. Speaker Colfax voted with the majority, making the total vote 126 to 47.

WASHINGTON AND GEORGETOWN ICE CO.
Thankful to the people of Washington for the almost universal patronage they have given, we again solicit their favors for the present year
We shall distribute only the best quality of Boston and Kennebec Ice.
We have added largely to the number of our teams, in order to supply promptly and early in the day all of our customers at a uniform and reasonable rate.
We submit the following rules for our drivers:
1. Supply your customers early in the day
2. Use and compel your assistants to use the most respectful language to every customer.
3. Give full weight, and where a ticket calls for a given number of pounds, say ten, give eleven rather than nine pounds.
4. Give your customers no reason whatever to complain.
We shall enforce these rules, not by remonstrance with drivers, but by discharging them at once, if they violate them.
As we shall distribute only Northern Ice, our prices with not be as high as last year, when delivering Potomac Ice.
